I don't know what happened, but one of my face side was crooked and more bloated.
Was fat, 0 bones, i don't know what happened, just sell your soulmaxxing.

13 yrs old framecel because big skull

15 yrs old, assymetric as hell

17 yrs old

Same selfie as 15 yrs old

just sell your soul.

maybe your bones are just a bit weaker in the tall skull pic

funny, because you look better in it doesn't matter though, gl as fuck in either one, nothing to lose sleep over all that happened was he lost body fat. This only works if you have top 5% bone structure.

The difference in perceived skull shape is due to head tilt and angle/lighting. Proportion is all that matters. Models manipulate proportion by tilting their heads slightly, up and down, left to right.

same here. If I cut my body fat like that. I would have sagging flat cheeks and under eye hollows. Chiseled facial bones are the most superior trait a man can have.
